

Stagnant Waters

Stagnant Waters is the experimental side of Dreams of the Drowned. Inspired by Dodheismgard, Mr. Bungle, Atomsmasher and such, Camille created the band in 2007, and was later joined by Aymeric (of Pryapisme). The early demos were released as a split with Phlegma on Abridged Pause, and now the band is finishing their debut album due out on Paradigms Recordings in late 2009.
